

1969 SIGNET

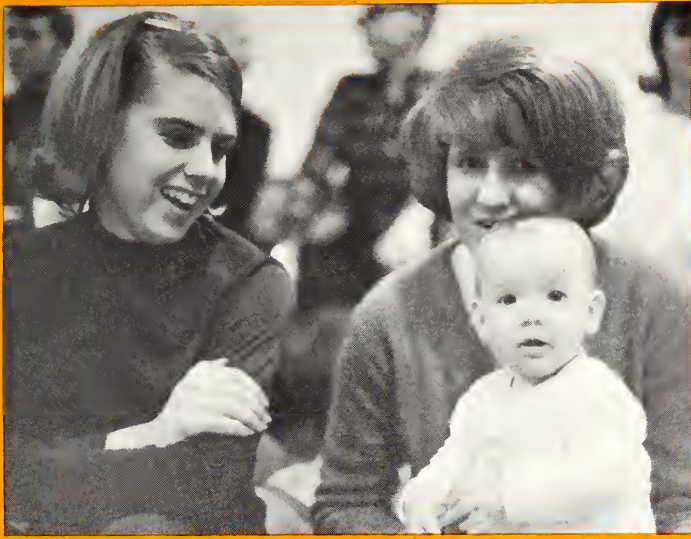

ROCKMONT

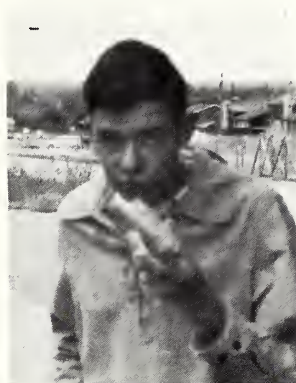

denver, colorado

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die: a time to plant and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal: a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

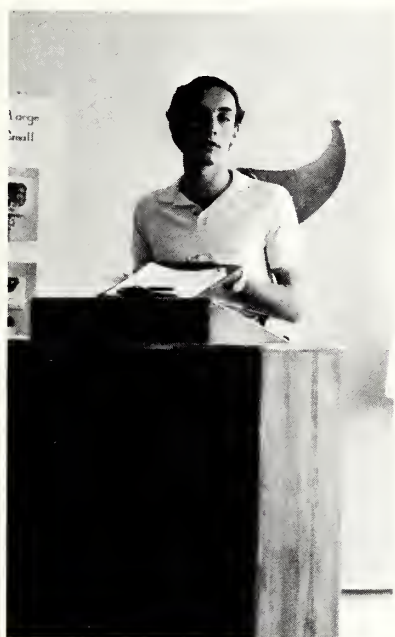

A time to cast away stones,
and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to get,
and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away.

A time to rend, and a time to sew: a time to keep silence, and a time to speak: a time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace. Ecc. 3:1-8 initiation & day in the mountains

Dressed in burlap, beanies, barefoot, and carrying the same banana all week, the freshmen started the year off right (in the upperclassmen's opinion). Initiation week ended with a party during which the freshmen got a taste of caramelized onions, raw eggs, and a cool dip in the lake. Breakfast and dinner in the mountains along with sports and fun gave the freshmen a chance to see college is not all studies.

homecoming

A pep-rally, led by Coach Finch, paved the way for the Homecoming activities to follow. The game the next day was interrupted at half-time by the crowning of King Dennis Nowka and Queen Lynette Carlson. Wrapping up Homecoming was a program of musical talent by students and alumni.

sno—banquet

Twenty-five miles into the sno-capped Rockies, the Highlander Inn was the scene for the '69 Sno-Banquet. After a fantastic meal, the entertainers took us "Stomping Through the Tulips" to "Alice's Restaurant". World-traveller, Jeff Royall, highlighted the evening with tales of his travels.

Ski-country, U.S.A. The inviting whiteness of the slopes draws students' attention away from the drag. Whether it's with two slats under the feet, a piece of cardboard under the seat, or however else one decides to meet the snow, it's a challenge.

missionary conference

What is God's will for my life? Does He want ME to be a missionary? These questions were resolved by many during the Spring Missionary Conference.

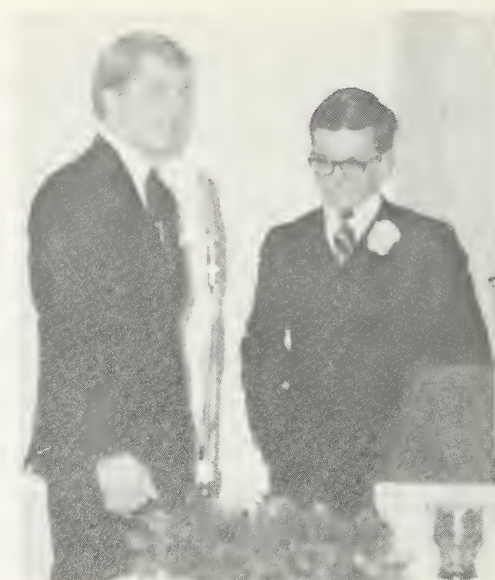

They came, all potential Rockmont students interested in how God works in the lives of college students. Participating in classes, chapel, and meals with the students. Jim Spillman of Denver's Calvary Temple told of the Christian college life "as it is".

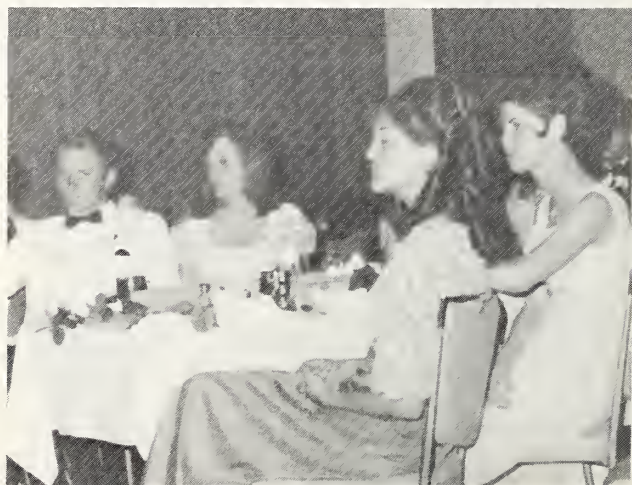

campus day

Dave Meekins, student body president for '68-'69, announced Student Council officers for the '69-'70 school year: Jim Weber - President, Dave Pearson - Vice President, Kathy Anderson - Secretary, and Paul Brooks - Treasurer. Dr. Beckman read the Seniors' "Will and Testament" of which the matter of greatest interest was the reunion of the class of '69 in 1989 for the dedication of the newly paved road on Rockmont's campus.

The world of soccer was coached by Paul Finch, who has played soccer in England for 14 years. Coach Finch spent many hours with the team both in practice & actual play. The team had a great season, despite injuries, mud, snow, & cold.

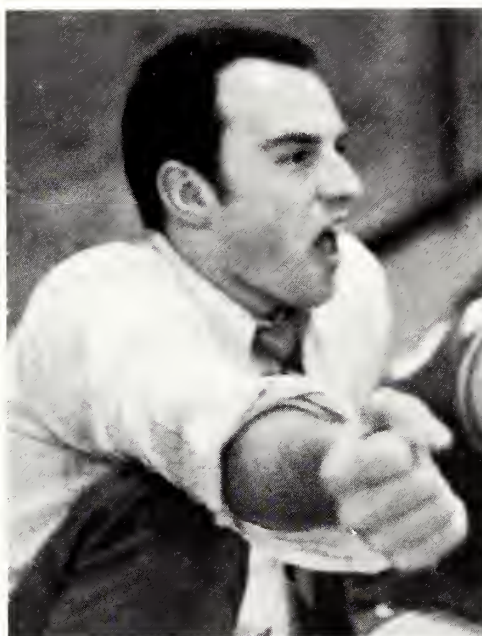

The Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate Soccer League named senior, Norm Lockyer, to their second team with players from the Univ. of Colo., Denver Univ., Colo. State Univ., Univ. of Wyoming, Air Force Academy, Regis College, & Colo. Alpine College. Eric Dahlberg, a sophomore, was given honorable mention by the League.

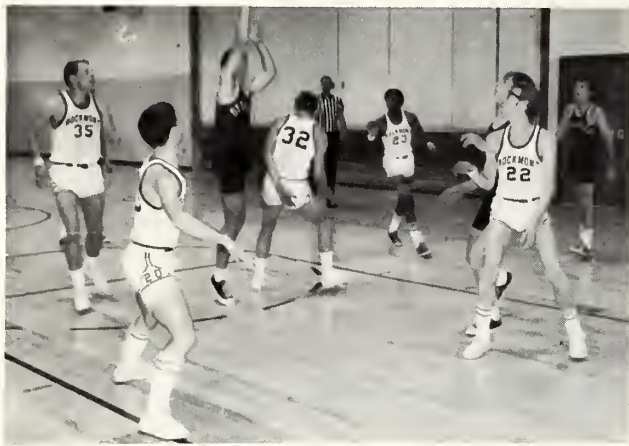

The fall soccer team-- Steve Adams, Steve Babbitt, Tim Wilson, Jim Weber, Dennis Nowka, Dave Lambert, Dave Frank, George Andrews, Rod Smith, Norm Lockyer, Rich Matzke, Eric Dahlberg, Mark Coffey, Paul Kareus, Dean Carlson, Larry Shulander, & Arnie Merchant-- turned in a better win record than many other colleges in the same RMIC League.

The '68-'69 basketball team--Arnie Merchant, John Obrecht, John Ballard, Rod Smith, Steve Obrecht, Steve Babbitt, George Andrews, Ron Fritsche, Dennie Nowka, Lee Jones, & John Rowland--was coached by Dave Lambert. Anticipation, frustration, hard work, and long hours of practice all go to describe the efforts of the team. Whether on the bench, part of the action, or in the stands, all feel the excitement of the game. Steve Obrecht, sophomore, pumped in 43 points in one game to break the previous record of 39. To end the season, the guys took the advantage & tossed Coach Lambert into the shower as a "token of their appreciation".

Amazement, unbelief, excitement, relief, anticipation . . . all these, and more, describe the feelings of graduation. For the ten seniors this long awaited moment had finally arrived.

graduation

Dear Student,

Out of the experience of daily life comes true education.

Not the classroom alone, but the disappointment of a game lost, the joy of blossoming love, the frustration of conflict, the temptation to quit, the discipline to endure, the loneliness of unpopularity... all these produce true learning.

Perhaps this year you have had the opportunity to mature in Christ through such experience.

It is my prayer for you that your experience may be that of Uzziah. As a teenager he became "king of Israel," and while he sought the Lord, God made him thrive." (2 Chr. 26:5)

Sincerely,

Dr. "B"
